four officers of the rank of Assistant General Manager and above in the General Insurance Corporation of India and its four subsidiary companies pending in the Central Vigilance Commission for their advice. The Central Vigilance Commission renders advice on vigilance cases and they do not investigate charges of corruption, defalcation and misappropriation. The investigation is done by the C.B.I. and the internal vigilance machinery of the G.I.C and its subsidiary companies. There is no provision in the conduct, Discipline and Appeal Rules of the G.I.C. enabling the Discpilinary Authority to conduct enquiry proceedings after superannuation of an officer;

(b) GIC have reported that no such officer has been promoted.

(c) The General Insurance Corporation of India and its four subsidiaries viz. National Insurance Company Ltd; New India Assurance Co. Ltd; Oriental Insurance Company Ltd. and United India Insurance Company Ltd. have strong vigilance machinery headed by Chief Vigilance Officers. They are assisted by Regional level Vigilance Officers. Every year, Action Plans are formulated on anti-corruption measures including preventive vigilance. Agreed list of officers of doubtful integrity is prepared in consultation with the Central Bureau of Investigation and surprise inspections are carried out by the Vigilance Officers from time to time. The vigilance machinery works in close association with the CBI. The vigilance activities of the GIC and its four subsidiaries are monitored and supervised at the Ministry level from time to time. These measures ensure prevention of corrupt practices in the GIC and its subsidiaries.
